

Biography

Jeff Stephens

Information Systems R&D Project Manager - Special Projects
VINCI Construction UK Limited

Jeff Stephens is an Information Systems R&D Project Manager for VINCI Construction UK and is responsible for developing a deploying BIM related procedures and processes within VINCI.

He has a civil engineering background and has a world class end user experience and knowledge of BIM as well as the use of buildingSMART Industry Foundation Classes (IFCs).

He has been involved in the management of many collaborative European and UK funded ICT R&D projects including CIMsteel, ATLAS, VEGA, CONCUR, ProCure, eConstruct, IFC-mBomb, Manubuild, UK COBie Pilot and more recently 4BIM looking at Level 3 BIM.

Jeff is a board member of buildingSMART UK (www.buildingsmart.org.uk) and a director of the OPEN BIM Network (www.openbimnetwork.com), he also contributes to a number of ICT strategy and standardisation working groups such as BSI Technical Committee B/555, ICE Information Systems Expert Panel, UK Contracting Group BIM Task Group, and a number of work streams supporting the UK Government BIM Strategy.